

Bryan Scott Clancy

December 29, 1965 - November 8, 2024

Bryan Scott Clancy, born December 29, 1965, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, passed away on November 8, 2024, after several years of illness and health problems.

Bryan always had a smile on his face and loved being outdoors whether it was hiking, biking or strolling on the beach. He loved listening to all kinds of music and especially enjoyed attending live concerts.

Bryan is survived by his wife, Laura Kaufman; stepchildren, Marah (Jake) Krapfl and Mitchell (Brecken); grandchildren, Bennett and Melanie; brother, Sean and his wife Jennifer and family; cousins, Jay and his wife Mary and family; cousins, Janine and her husband Mike and family; aunt Cheryl and family; aunt Barb and family; and many more loved ones and friends. He is deeply missed by all of us.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Regina and David Clancy.

In accordance with Bryan's wishes, cremation has taken place and no services were held.

Bryan, I will always cherish our marriage and time we were able to spend together. The sometimes-chaotic times in West Bend, Wisconsin, then on to our beach time in St. Augustine, Florida and our adventures in Nevada walking and hiking around Lake Meade! Then on to Colorado where we enjoyed the mountains and being near the kids. Don't forget about the wonderful trip we took to California where I met all your fantastic friends and enjoyed the best food!

I know your favorite place of all, the place we ended up, was our cozy little cabin in the Northwoods of Wisconsin. It was your dream, and you made it come true for us. The place is lonely without you, and I will never be able to enjoy The Price is Right the same without you sitting next to me.

I miss you, my love.

Laura

“ Bryan was always a light in our extended Clancy family. We didn't have an opportunity to see him that often as we live in Arizona, but we loved every minute we shared together at family gatherings. Bryan was the oldest grandchild for our parents, Jack and Thelma Clancy, after Dave married Reggie and officially adopted Bryan. Bryan would bring up his eldest status with the biggest smile on his face and then would joyfully engage with his younger cousins. Laura, we are so sorry for your loss and your letter to Bryan in the obituary is just beautiful. I'm sure that Bryan is hanging out with Dave and Reggie along with the rest of the Clancy Clan up there in the heavens, and he will always be remembered in our hearts.
