“ Growing up with Chuck on Walton Avenue, I have many memories that I could share. At Washington Jr. High School, I had to share a kitchen in Home Ec with Chuck and George Yarber. They LOVED to add many 'unusual' ingredients to our 'dish of the day'--putting sugar instead of salt, etc.--until they realized that we would actually have to EAT our creations. And then there were the water fights between nearby kitchens---it was lucky we all didn't get thrown out of Mrs. Murphy's class! :-) What a wonderful sense of humor--he shall be missed!
