“ Always laughing with a smile on his face when we were kids...even if we were being naughty...which was most of the time. God Bless you Mr. Wells it was a privilege to grow up as your neighbor.

“ I have never forgotten the impression Clyde left on me as a child.... and all my family, as such a genuine, humorous and kind man. Wonderful memories of family picnics spent together, block parties, and snowball fights in the front yard with all the kids in the neighborhood. We have all been so lucky to have spent many happy moments with him. I will cherish all of those memories forever. You have my heartfelt sympathy... to Phyllis, Amy, Bill, and all the grandchildren. ~Nancy Bibo Cole
