“ Just sitting here thinking that a very remarkable, wonderful man, David, is not among us anymore. The first time I met David I liked him. He was the type of guy that made an impression on everyone he met. He always had a beautiful smile when he walked into a room. When you talked with him you knew he was listening. He always said what was on his mind, he told the truth whether you liked it or not and he cared about the people in his life. He was totally in love with Shirley and loved his children. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
