

Peter Joseph Malinis

June 11, 1976 - August 31, 2019

Peter was a lifelong entrepreneur with vision and drive. A very hard worker and triathlete that built a successful cleaning business, WeClean, and accomplished his goal of franchising. He loved good food, good wine, family and fitness. His love for his sons was paramount and Max and Parker's happiness was more important to him than words can describe.

Peter is survived by his loving strong wife, Heidi; dedicated to his wonderful sons Max and Parker; his amazing mother Fe Azcona (Nabil), supportive brothers he loved and admired Felix Malinis (Rowena; Cameron and Zander) and Dennis Malinis (Nicole); his second mom, Tita Judy Azcona-Long (Harvey), his sister cousin Sara Dople (Tony); Beth Malinis and numerous cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and special friends that he loved dearly.

Peter is preceded in death by his father, Peter E. Malinis; and his son, Colby.

“ I met Peter professionally, my first impression was he was a man who cared . He cared about his business he was building and he cared about the people he served. He often spoke of his family and his love for them. Although my relationship was short it was something to celebrate. He was and very kind sweet man. I wish for your family that with time your memories will bring you peace and comfort .
